To Our Principal . . .

W. LEON MASON

for

- his devotion to us
- his many-sided contributions to Falls Church High School
- his zeal and drive for worthy causes in the school and in the community

We dedicate the 1959 JAGUAR

W. Leon Mason, Principal

The teachers, principals, guides
in our lives
Announcements, the hum of the office “Mr. Barrett would like to see . . .”
Signing absence slips, conducting “work crew” and “knucklehead sessions” after school all this and teaching too the thoughtful word about a paper, a word of praise about the game, or a bit of friendly advice
All this and teaching, too!
The hours of work spent after class in the quiet, slumbering school Time given unselfishly that we may gain, learn,
grow in understanding,
coming a little nearer the goal of life

MR. TOM ALLEN

DIED MAY 1, 1959

Teacher of Senior Civics, Economic Geography, Business Law
Lawyer — Teacher — Economist

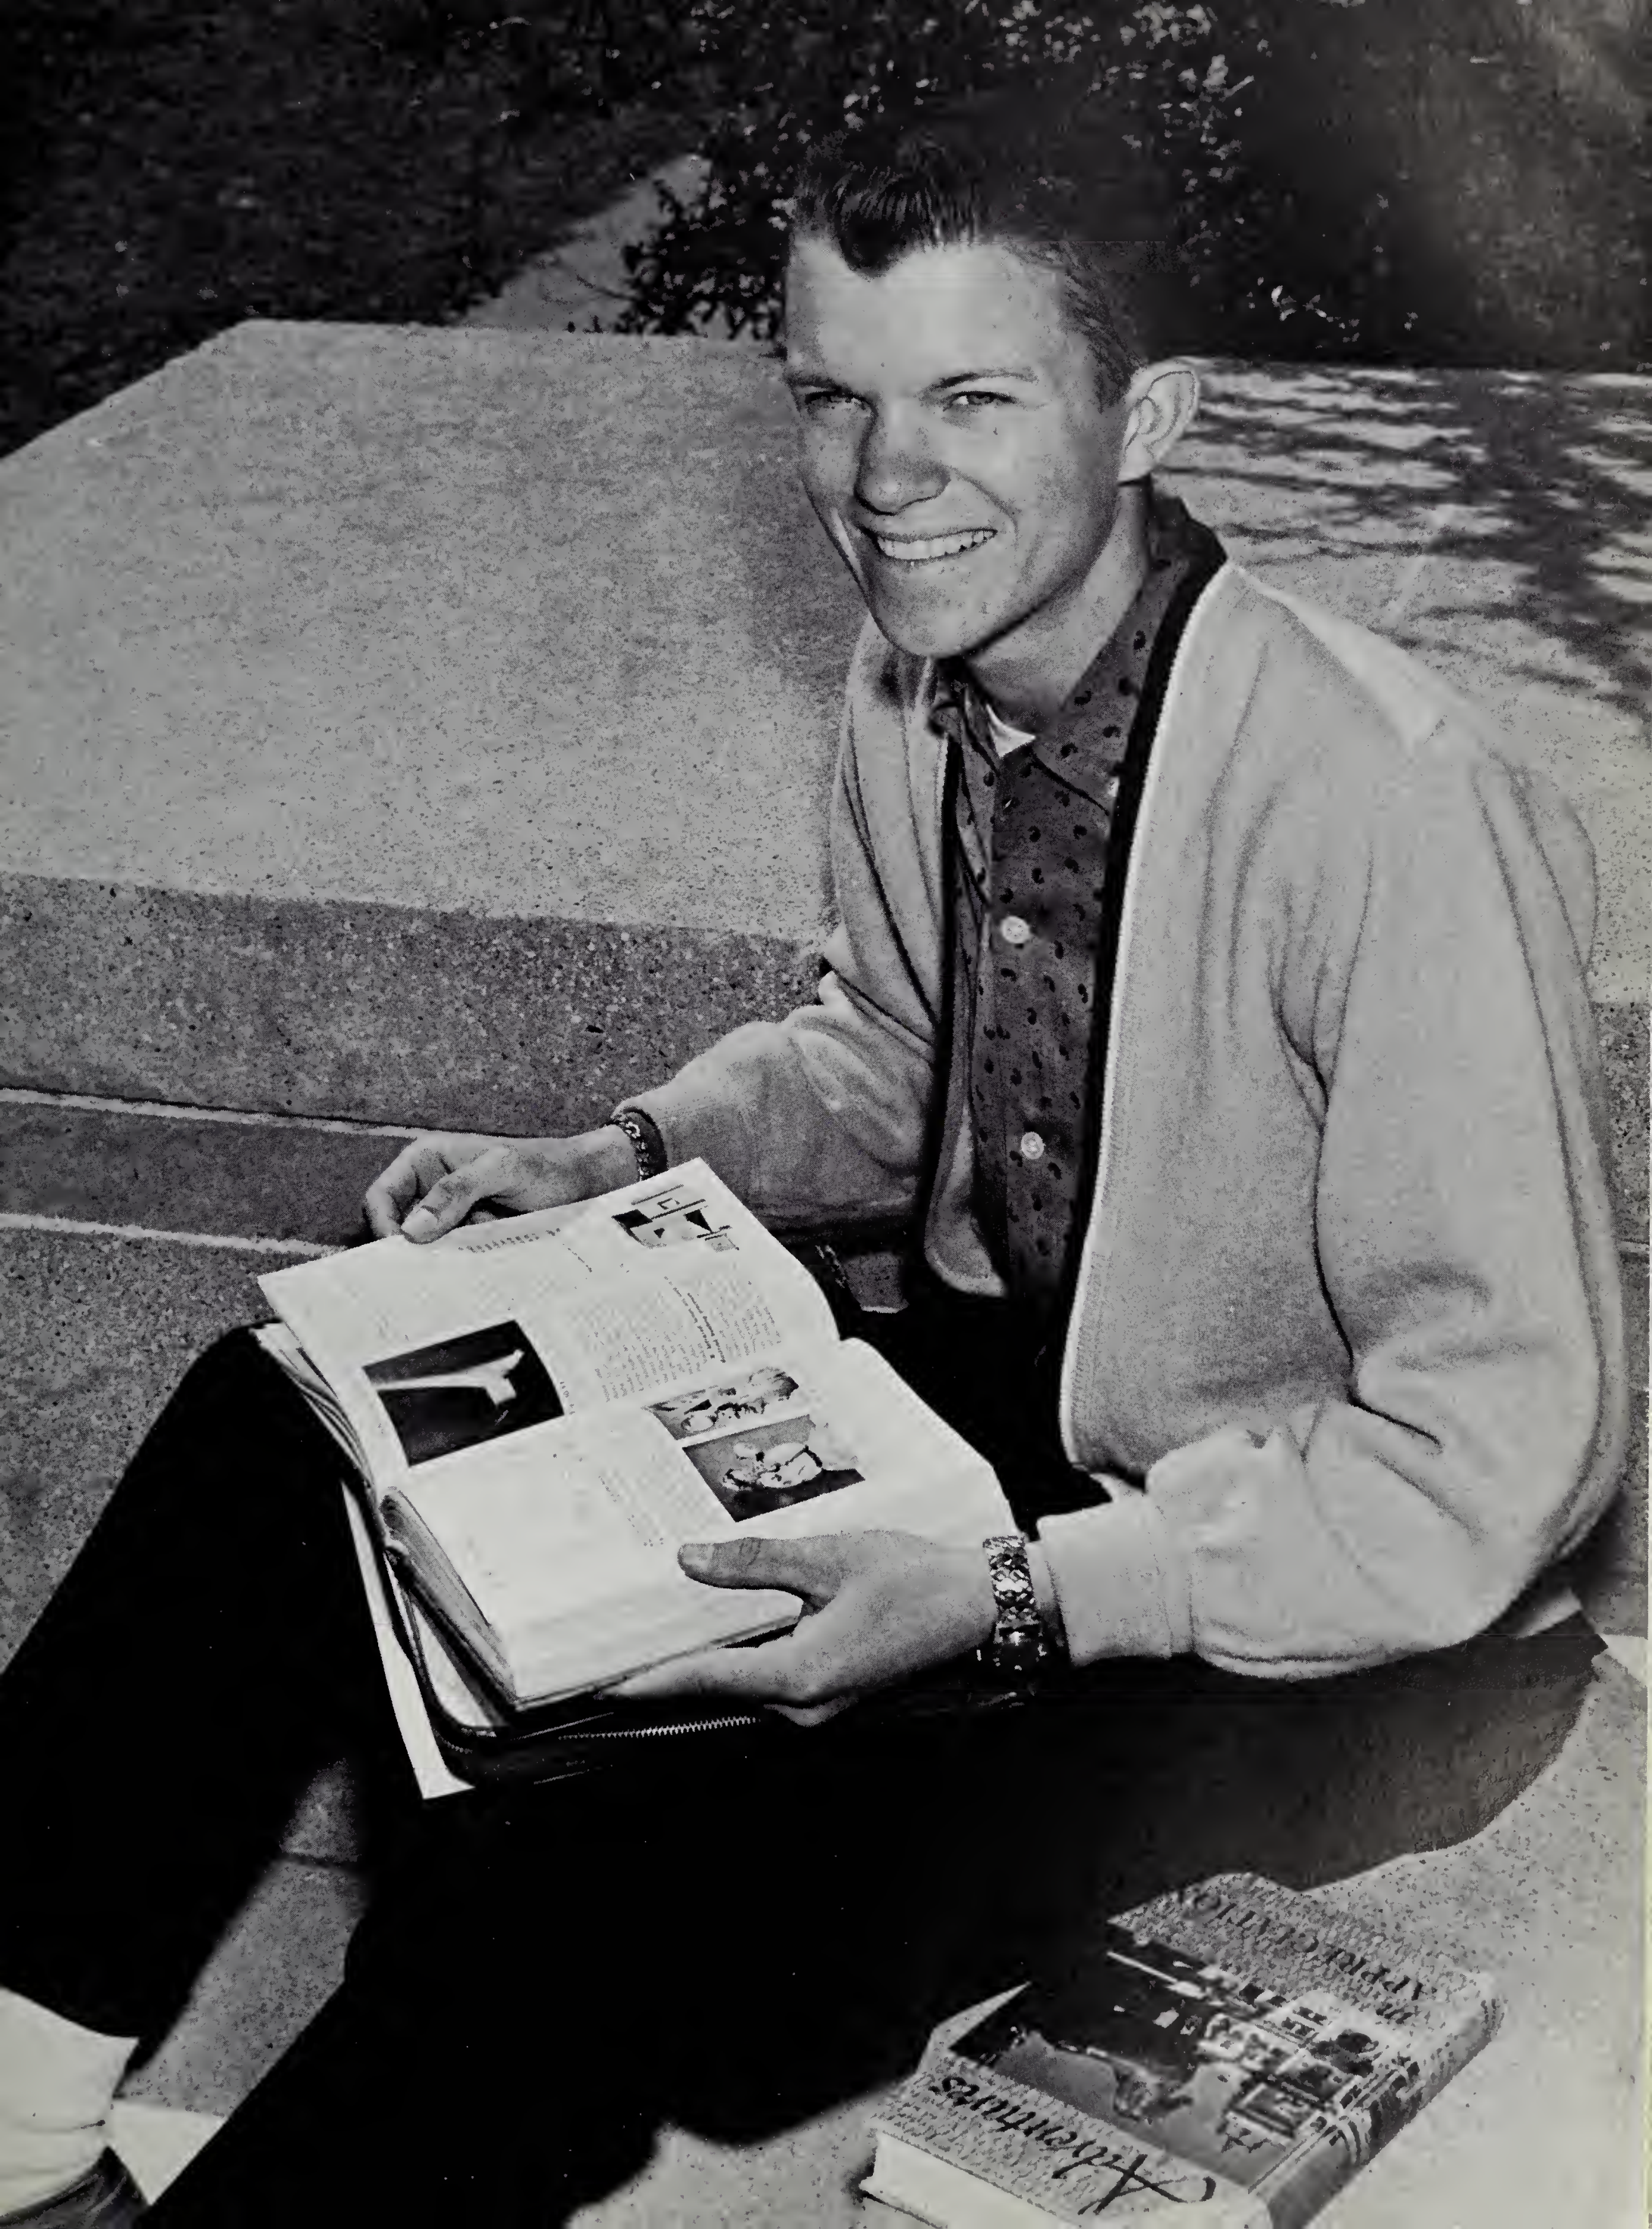

*"Our tears are not yet brewed.
Nor our strong sorrow Upon the foot of motion."*

— MACBETH

After our tears were brewed and shed and we understood our great loss on that first day of May — we then found ourselves remembering and smiling softly, for Tom Allen had a warm light humor and a kind concern for human beings — especially for those not quite sure. We were lucky to have known him. How we will miss him!

Autumn . . .
Back to school again to friendly faces buses that rattle the clang of bells changing classes. The voice of a teacher many jumbled, raised voices in the crowded halls the scratch of chalk on blackboards
Dimly lighted halls where footsteps begin again to echo hurrying, scuffling . . . searching following the road . . .
of life

FCHS Students in the News

Richard, David and James Ricks received Scouting's highest rank, Eagle, in the Spring of this year. It is believed to be the first time three brothers received the rank simultaneously in the Washington area.

Our own Betsy Lamphere greets the President and Mrs. Eisenhower at the opening of the Peace Pageant, Dec. 23, on the Ellipse. Betsy was the official representative of all the girls in America.

Little gold pins, candles, striving for excellent grades “I’ve gotta make a B in Trig” “I hope it won’t keep me out” aspirations, suspense Report Cards come out today!
Struggling over letters of application,
Hoping against hope for an invitation.
always questioning—will I get one?
jubilation
“I got it! I got it!”
Thinking, “Won’t mom be happy?”
The night of induction many smiling parents stiffly dressed, sober-faced students gallons of green punch extended speeches Holding the flame of knowledge, uplifting of scholastic goals felt, an academic aura attained Only to find there are still rugged heights of knowledge yet to be scaled.

The muffled rhythm of the band marching Faint sounds from down the hall, as the choir practices, moving the piano back and forth, last minute reminders “Have your choir robes ironed . . .”
Tryouts
“Guess what? I made A Cappella.”
“A list will be posted on the auditorium door.”
“You’ll buy a ticket, won’t you?”
Memories of “Harvey Calling” Risers, flats, costumes paint, lights
the many lines learned, blocking out, hours of practice,
all for the show . . .
still the curtain goes up and the show goes on.

The school winners in other divisions were: Public Speaking, Ken Collis and Michele Haney; Prose, Alan Hockett and Linda Loughton; Poetry, Hoy Steele and Claire-Lise Woringer; Spelling, Susan Flynt.

Voting
for the court. Endless counting the click as the announcement comes on The few moments filled with expectation, wonderment,
Who will be queen?
Then you know! Questions begin to flood your mind
• Where will I get the money?
I wonder if he will invite me?
I hope I don't have to wear the same old rag?
problems all solved somehow Decorating the day before in bluejeans, pincurls, with miles of crepe paper masking tape, too few ladders
The Dance
organdy, bow ties, corsages frothy gowns, blaring band
The question remaining How late is late?

Homecoming Court and Weekend

How thrilling and exciting to see the escorts driven onto the field and then the moment we had waited for: Our Queen, Pat Finley, arrived and Mr. Mason presented her the gold football.

The game was overshadowed only by the dance. Pat, with her escort, Cadet Harry Woodward '57, were truly a regal couple. The whole weekend was one we are not likely to forget.

"We all had a wonderful time!"

Sweetheart Court

Who will be elected Sweetheart Queen? Was there really any doubt! Of course we all knew it would be Nancy Borel. If there were any doubts, they were dispelled on the night of the Sweetheart Dance when Nancy, dressed in white organdy, holding her bouquet of red roses, and surrounded by her attendants, reigned over the whole wonderful evening.

The decorations for the Sweetheart Dance were a real production. The Dianes Stuart and La Ferriere had designed and executed them with the help of many others on the SCA.

Prom Court

This is it! That's how we all felt about the Junior-Senior Prom before hand. Now that it is over we can tell you; that doesn't begin to describe our Prom, held at the Willard Hotel, May 21. Who will ever forget the magnificent Prom Court as our queen, Heather Peebles, and her attendants, appeared on the balcony!

It was spring, there was music, beautiful girls, handsome boys, and gee! here I was, a part of it!

SPTA Carnival

The annual CPTA Spring Carnival was held on April 11. This tremendous fund-raising project helps to finance the two generous $250 scholarships that go to the top academic senior boy and girl for the 1958-59 year.

What an event it was! The White Elephant booth with record albums for twenty-five cents; the dart throwing and jelly bean contest; the magician and other acts in the auditorium; card party; and many others.

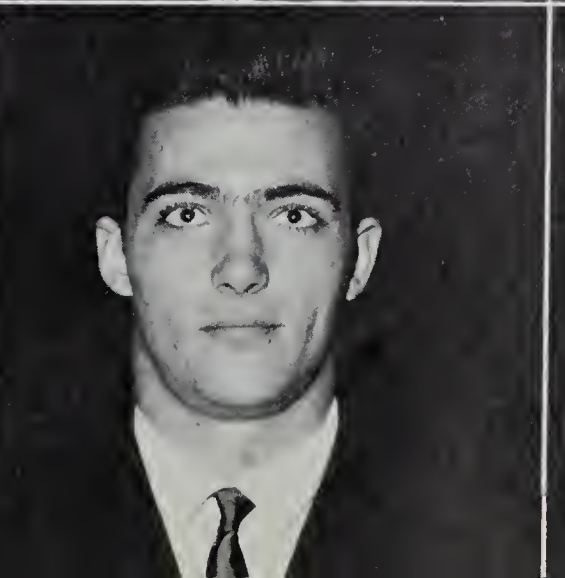

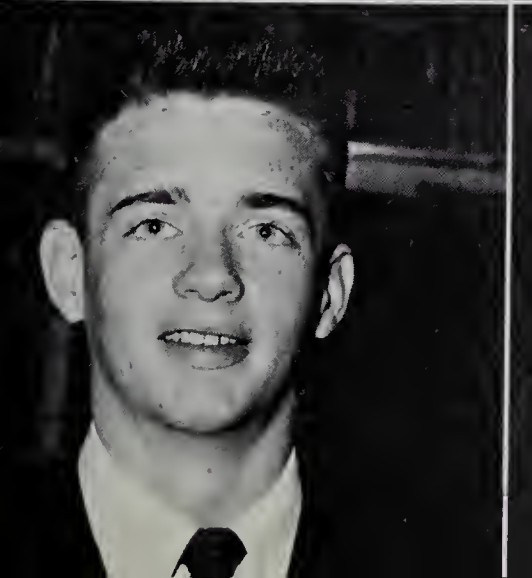

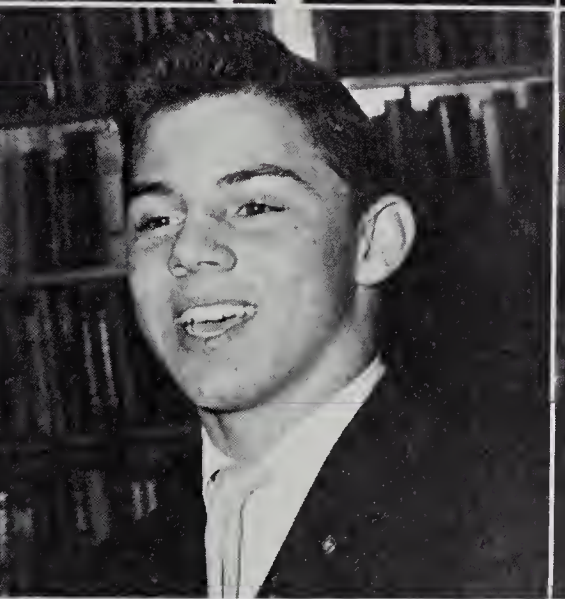

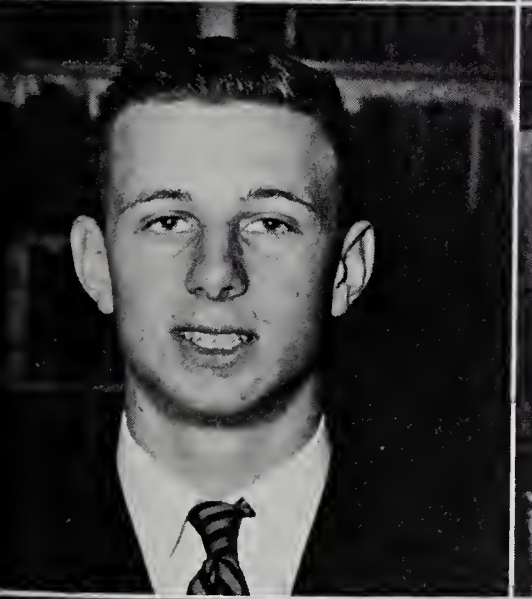

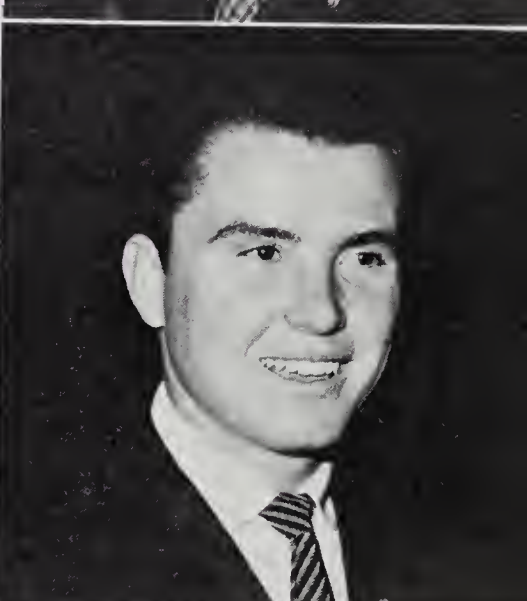

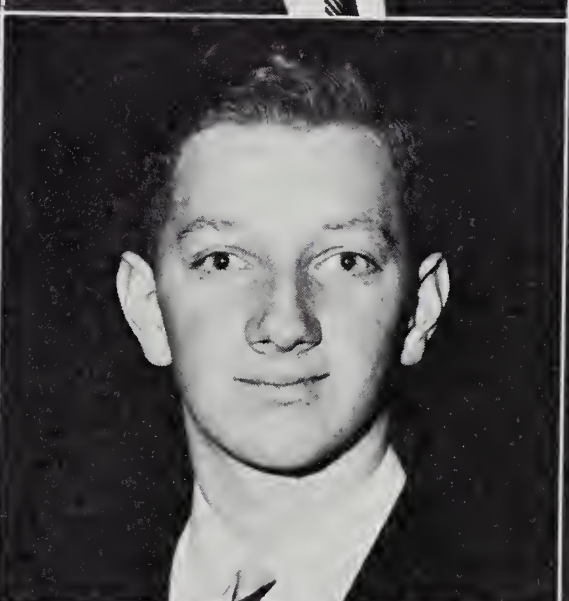

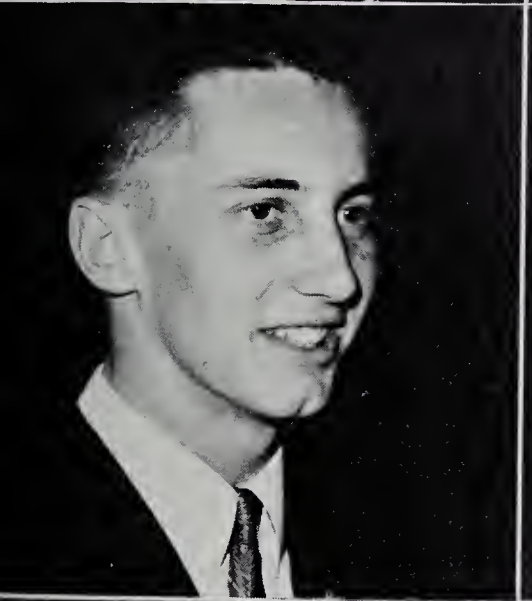

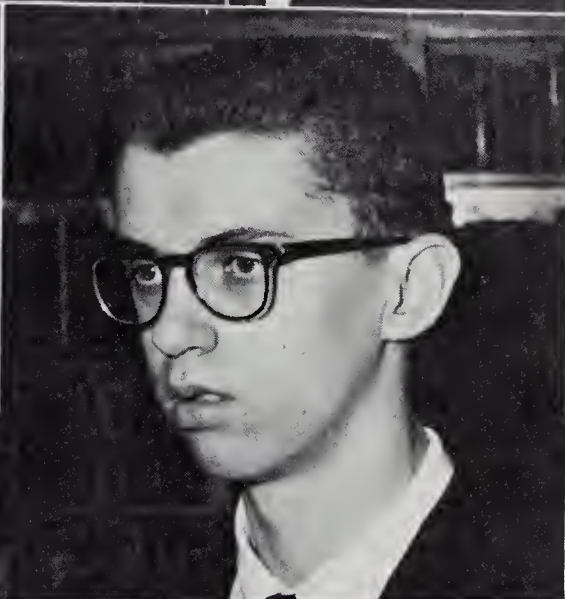

The Senior Class proved that seniors are not always lagging in fund-raising. Chuck Liefbried and Dodi Dillard were elected King and Queen. The beaming expressions of their faces after the 'crowning' were almost as much fun to see as the whole evening's entertainment.
